5. Schedule of Records

THE LISTING OF SUBJECTS AND CATEGORIES OF RECORDS HELD BY THE PRIVATE BODY: SECTION 51(1)(d)

The private body maintains records on the following categories and subject matters. Please note that recording a category or subject matter in this manual does not imply that a request for access to such records will be granted. All requests for access will be evaluated on a case by case basis in accordance with the provisions of PAIA. In particular there may be applicable grounds for refusal of such request, as set out in PAIA.

Many of the records held by the private body are confidential and others are the property of third parties, such as clients and employees. The private body takes the protection of third party confidential information very seriously and any requests for access to these records will be considered very carefully.

Please ensure that requests for such records are carefully motivated.

7.3 Attached is Prescribed Form C as downloaded from the SAHRC website

7.4 DECISION REGARDING REQUEST

PAIA provides numerous grounds upon which the private body may refuse to grant access to a record of the body.

These grounds for refusal are to protect:-

- the privacy of another person;
- commercial information of third parties or of the private body;
- confidential information of third parties;
- the safety of individuals and protection of property;
- records privileged from production in legal proceedings;
- research information

A requester will be notified in writing whether the request has been approved or denied within 30 calendar days after receipt by the private body of the completed Form C. Should any record of the private body requested not exist or not be found, the private body will, by way of affidavit notify the requester that it is not possible to give access to that particular record.

APPROVAL

As Head of the private body, responsible for the processing of requests in terms of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, I confirm the adoption of this manual.
